August 2009 Newsletter - Turkey Creek Division

Hello Everyone.

Our meeting July 28th was well attended and as always, Ron Morse MMR made an excellent presentation of his railroad. A good warm-up for the August 1st meet.

I hope everyone that wanted was able to attend the Division Meet August 1st in Lenexa. It appeared that all persons enjoyed the event. I believe about 280 people attended, many stayed a majority of the day and it was buzzing all day long. We had some great clinics, a great model contest, a crowded train show and the layout tours received a lot of attention. I was told Kevin Leyerle had visitors operating until 1:00 a.m.! Kevin was an extremely good host … Thank You. Jim Duncan in Warrensburg got a few visitors and maybe two of them will operate with Jim. I was able to visit most, but not all the layouts. Thank those persons who opened their homes. That really contributed to a successful meet.

With the show completed, we can now relax a bit, but, don't forget about the design challenge next June … "No Limitation"!

I've heard very little about the National Convention in Hartford. Maybe Miles or Fran could make some comments at the September meeting?

For those narrow gauge interests, don't forget the 29th Annual National Narrow Gauge Convention in Colorado Springs, September 16th thru 19th. That would be very interesting … and it is hoped to be timed with the changing color of the aspens in the mountains. I wish I could go.

Our September meeting should be very good. We have Brad Morneau who is going to demonstrate and discuss scratch building, plus Peter Hansen, historian and editor of "Railroad History" magazine, to talk about the development of Union Station.

See everyone there.

Sincerely,

Sincerely,
Larry W. Diehl

Press release hot off the wires:

Kansas City Southern Announces Operations Management Changes

KANSAS CITY, Mo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Kansas City Southern (KCS) (NYSE: KSU) announced today that David R. Ebbrecht, former vice president transportation of The Kansas City Southern Railway Company (KCSR), will direct the operations of KCSR. In a news release issued by KCS on July 24, 2009, the company announced that Mr. Ebbrecht had accepted the position of senior vice president operations of Kansas City Southern de Mexico, S.A. de C.V. (KCSM).

Mr. Ebbrecht will remain in the United States as senior vice president operations and continue to direct KCSR's rail operations as a result of the departure of Scott E. Arvidson, KCSR's former executive vice president and chief operating officer. Mr. Ebbrecht will report to David L. Starling, president and chief executive officer of KCSR and president and chief operating officer of KCS.

Mr. Ebbrecht will remain in the United States as senior vice president operations and continue to direct KCSR's rail operations as a result of the departure of Scott E. Arvidson, KCSR's former executive vice president and chief operating officer. Mr. Ebbrecht will report to David L. Starling, president and chief executive officer of KCSR and president and chief operating officer of KCS.
William H. Nolen, senior vice president operations of KCSM will remain in this role and direct the operations of KCSM. He will continue to report to Jose G. Zozaya, president and executive representative of KCSM.

"Dave and Bill will continue to coordinate the operations of our two primary rail subsidiaries to improve the operational efficiencies between the two railroads," said Mr. Starling. "We are fortunate to have qualified, proven leaders to continue to lead KCSR's and KCSM's operations in this time of transition."

Trackside

Dedicated to Trackside Observations made members of the Tri-City Model Railroad Association.
