Superintendent Report: Martin Wade

The last couple months I talked about “motivation” but I can assure you nothing is more motivating than putting your layout on Tour. Especially when you are in an early construction phase. So, Lora and I worked non-stop on the “Givins” list and then moved on to the “Druthers” list. I called it a marriage test as Lora had a 3-day weekend and we started building the Mountain Trackwork. Design to Implementation, we fabricated our trackwork plan into our “imagineered” mountain district. While it was all “display” (not final spline, roadbed, and trackwork) it was fairly substantial so that it would “show” the visitors what we were planning. I even had automation with 6 trains running around the railroad. And a day before the tour the Shay “threw a gear” and would not reverse down the mountain. After a panic emergency repair all was good and Ore was once again flowing to the Mill.

Hosting the Tour was a blast and both Lora and I enjoyed showing (off) our layout and all the conversations that ensued. Of course, a large group of cars came right at the beginning. I didn’t know that many people could fit into the room.

The next day Lora and I sat numb and idle thinking there must be something that needed to be finished and reminding ourselves it was over. Time to pop a cold one.

This month we have 4 members hosting Layout Operating Sessions for those bold enough to sign up. I hope and am sure they will all have the same fun Lora, and I just enjoyed. Only one meeting month (July) left before our Annual Train Show & Swap Meet at the Shawnee Civic Center. We are calling around for Clinics and Layouts for the afternoon tour. If interested drop me a quick email and I will give you a call. Don’t forget to get working on your contest room model too. Hope you find time for your railroad empire soon!

Clerk Report: John Fales, Clerk

The Turkey Creek May meeting was held at the Lakeview Community Center on Tuesday May, 27th. Martin called the meeting to order and reviewed business that members should be aware of.

Long time, now deceased member, Jack Rosenfield had a really nice layout that his family would like to dispose of in the future. They are interested in exploring options to give Jack's layout new life. If interested, contact TC leadership.

Plans for the Mid-Continent Regional Convention and the Turkey Creek Division train show are continuing to be fine-tuned. It is important to know that there will be two contests. The MCoR contest will be an NMRA contest and the TC train show contest will be as it was last year. It is important to know that the MCoR contest will be on Friday and the TC contest will be on Saturday. Each contest will need to be entered separately if you are interested in having models in each contest.

Member Alex Kennerly announced that he is forming a new Kansas City Modular Club that will be focused on modular operations. The club will be using HO scale modules as well as narrow gauge. If you need additional information, Alex can be reached at 630-551-6761.

Turkey Creek is sponsoring a series of operating sessions again later in June and early July. Mike Fyten and Larry Holcomb will sponsor separate sessions on June 24th. Bill Scheerer will sponsor a session on June 28th. Miles Hale will sponsor a session on July 1st. If you are not interested in actually operating, it is perfectly ok to be an observer! Watch for updates and additional dates to be announced. (Editor Note: signups have been completed)

The clinic presentation was given by Bob Walz. The clinic title was "The Santa Fe in World War II, 1939 – 1945. Bob presented a very detailed and thorough review of the Santa Fe railroad and involvement in the war effort across the U.S. It was very interesting to learn of the activities the Santa Fe was involved in from troop movements to equipment transportation and materials movement to support the war efforts.

Our Next meeting will be in July back at Lakeview. June is the OP session schedule only. See you then!
