Clinic For September 26, 2006

"Scale Color" By Jim EuDaly

A career as an optometrist made me aware of color vision characteristics and this clinic is an attempt to understand "scale color" and apply the knowledge to our modeling efforts. Items such as light intensity, color temperature, size and distance and other factors will be discussed and illustrated with slides. Formulas for modifying colors will be presented for the common modeling scales and a handout containing a synopsis of the clinic will be available.

Paul Richardson, MMR

WOW...what more can I say? The Turkey Creek Meet was FANTASTIC! Our vendors had a successful meet and the Clinics were some of the best you will see anywhere. I would like to express my thanks to the Meet Committee and Chairman, Paul Myers for a job extremely well done. While we didn't set a record for number of entries in the contest room, it was the best turnout in several years – Good job Pat. I would also like to say Thank You to everyone who worked at the Division Meet, the clinicians, the guys who worked the registration table, and others who handled videos and door prizes, the layout tour Chairman, tour hosts and to those who handled the other “as needed” tasks. I hope I didn't forget anyone but if I did believe me, your efforts are appreciated.

I was impressed by the quality and quantity of the models in the contest room this year. We had more entries than the NMRA had at the National Convention this year. What does this tell me? It says the membership of the TCD is devoted to model railroading and can and does produce top-quality models that can compete anywhere. Great job and thanks for participating. I do not have a total attendance calculated to announce, but will have that information at our September meeting.

September Meeting – Jim EuDaly, MMR will host a clinic on “Scale Color” don't miss it. You will pick up some valuable information to use on your models and layout.

Recently, the Turkey Creek Division qualified 2 more MMRs. Rick McClellan has earned his seventh certificate and Paul Myers finished Motive Power to earn his seventh certificate and is the TCD's newest MMR. Congratulations Rick and Paul!

In the coming months, Jim Flynn will qualify as a new MMR as he holds 6 certificates and is working hard to qualify for number 7. Pete Bellos has 5 and is planning to earn the 2 remaining certificates needed to qualify. This is an exciting time in the Achievement Program and the Turkey Creek Division. If you are not currently working in the achievement I encourage you to give it a try. Check out the requirements for the Golden Spike Award. I suspect many of you already qualify or could with just a little work (you want to get this BEFORE you become an MMR as MMRs do not qualify for the Golden Spike Award.) I know you have heard me say this many times and you will hear it many more times, the Achievement Program will help you improve your modeling skills. How? It will challenge you to do some things that you probably would not have done if you were not working in the AP. This will stretch your skill level and like a rubber band that has been stretched, you will never return to your original state. Believe me, I learned a lot while working in the AP and wouldn't take anything for the skills I developed and the friendships that were created while working in this program.

Achievement Program Launch – If you are interested in working in the AP Launch Program to scratch build cars, please send an email to me at paul@purgatoryanddevilriver.com

I do not have a site located, yet, but would like to get this started around mid-September, so send those emails and I will email the location and supplies information to you.

Until next month, “Keep ‘em on the Rails.”

The 2006 Turkey Creek Meet and Train Show

The 2006 Turkey Creek Meet and Train Show was held on August 12, 2006.

By all accounts, it was a great show.

There were between 250 and 300 attendees, and 30 vendors. Three clinics were held and a great array of door prizes were offered.

We sold over eighty tables to the vendors.

The Boy Scout Troop 92 provided an excellent concession stand.

There were nine layout tours to choose from, and all were well attended. The contest room had 81 models for display, and a number of merit awards were handed out in the AP judging.

I would like to personally thank the Meet committee for all their hard work, and all the volunteers who helped at registration, at the door prize table, with the clinics, and in the contest room. You all worked very hard to make this meet a successful one, and you are all a credit to the hobby.

Paul W. Myers, MMR

Turkey Creek 2006 Layout Tour

By Kerry Lindenbaum

I am very happy to report that this year's 2006 Turkey Creek Division Meet Layout Tour was a smashing success. First, we had 9 layouts volunteered for the tour. Second, we had a good turnout reported at all layouts. No layouts this year reported that they had no visitors, or only a small number of visitors, even though we had several that were 25 miles or more from the convention center where the actual divisional meet and train show was held. As expected, the layouts that were the closest to the convention center had the heaviest traffic, but even the outlying layouts in Kansas City, Kansas and in Missouri reported 20 or more visitors.

The tour was divided into two groupings. The first was the afternoon tour which lasted from 3 until 6 pm. There were five different layouts in this group. Three were within three miles of the convention center, the fourth was about six and a half miles and the last was in Kansas City, Kansas and was sixteen miles away. The second grouping was the evening tour which was held from 6 until 9 pm. There were four layouts in this tour and all were in Missouri. They averaged 25 miles from the convention center.

The layout descriptions follow. The first five were in the afternoon tour. The last four were the evening tour. Each layout will have a description followed by one or two pictures.

San Juan Mountain Layout by Shelley Levy

Description:

A free-lance On3 layout sited in the San Juan Mountains of Colorado in the 1930/1940 era. The layout is in a 20'x40' room. About half of the full layout is in place and permits operating sessions. The portion that is in place is fully scenic'd except for a recent expansion which is partially scenic'd. Visible track is hand laid code 83 whereas hidden trackage is flextrack. Pictures by Louis Seibel

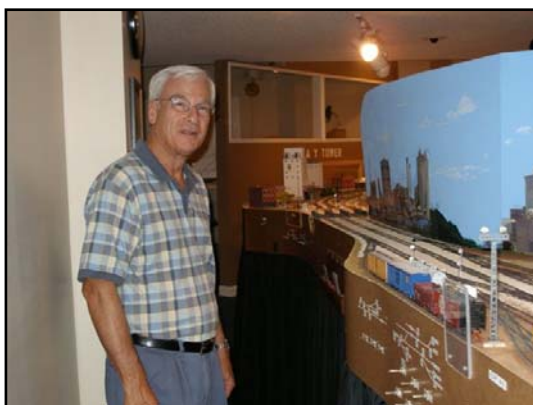

The power system is DCC (Easy DCC), the switch points are thrown using Tortoise machines. A new control panel for the Westcliffe area uses a microcomputer chip and surface mount LED's (1/32" x 1/16") for non-glare operation when at night illumination. The campfire in the hobo camp uses fiber optics to simulate the brightness and ebbing of the burning fuel in the fire. Two buildings in the town of Tellurton, a mercantile and a feed store, have finished interiors.

AT & SF Railway, Silver City Division by Gary Hankins

Description:

This HO Layout has Digitrax and automatic signaling. Modeling Argentine, Kansas through Winter Park, Colorado with a new extension of hidden staging and Union Pacific yards at Omaha, Nebraska. Modeling the year of 1995.

Gold Mining and Milling in the Colorado Rockies by Ron Morse

Description:

The Forks Creek & Central Railroad has been under construction since 1984 and is 99.9% complete. It is basically an around the wall layout that contains two continuous loops. The FC&CRR is standard gauge and the Coyote Gold Tram narrow gauge HON2½. The layout is set in the turn of the century era in the Colorado Rockies during the fall of the year. The primary theme of the railroad is gold mining and milling with most of the motive power being geared steam locomotives. This layout was featured in the June, 1998 Model Railroader Magazine and the May/June 1998 NG&SL Gazette. A photo of the Coyote Gold Tram was featured on page 95 of the February 2003 Model Railroader Magazine. The backdrop for this railroad was hand painted by Ron which includes rounded corners, special lighting, fascia, and drapes. The layout abounds with animation. Ron is a Master Model Railroader (MMR-159) who has been published numerous times in the Model Railroad Press. Ron and his wife Vicki own and operate Morse Productions (a company which has produced model railroad detail parts since 1985). Also on display is one of the few surviving modules of the 'G' scale (1/24=GN42) Gold Creek Railroad (see Model Railroader Magazine, May 1998) which includes the Morse Mercantile (see Model Railroader Magazine, May 2002). Scales: HO, HON3, HON2½. G Pictures: There are no pictures available of Ron Morse's layout.

The Afton Subdivision of the Frisco by Robert Snare

Description:

I model 20 miles of the Afton Subdivision of the Frisco and part of Parsons Subdivision between Cherokee and Pittsburg, Kansas. My railroad is set in the 1950's and 60's. Both Frisco and Santa Fe operated lines between Kansas City and Tulsa. I like both and have combined both railroads together for operating purposes. Scale of this railroad is HO.

Kansas Division of the Union Pacific by Charley Stapleton

Description:

I model the Kansas Division of the Union Pacific Railroad between the towns of Topeka and Russell. The era is 1952-54. There is an approximate total of 1200' of track laid with 850' of it being hand laid. Over half of the 130 or so turnouts are "scratch-built." Towns included on the RR are Topeka,

Manhattan, Ft. Riley, Junction City, Abilene, Salina, and Russell. CTC 80 throttle control is used. Ten people are required for an operating session. Scale of this layout is HO. Pictures by Louis Seibel

Chicago to Indiana by Joseph A. Ringbauer

Description:

The HO scale layout goes from Chicago to Indiana stopping at Garret to Defiance to Dashler to Dayton to Cottage Grove back to Chicago. Also from Chicago to La Cross to Peru to Muncie to Boston to Coal Run back to Peru to La Cross again then back to Dayton to Cottage Grove and then to Chicago. It is in two levels. The lower level to Garret on the lower level. Then to La Cross and on to the upper level.

2006 Turkey Creek Contest

If you did not get an opportunity to visit this year's contest room, you missed one of the best turnouts in a good long while. There were a total of eighty-one entries and every category was represented. Merit judging was requested for eleven entries and eight of those eleven entries received merit awards. That is over 70%, which is very good and a bit surprising. The overall quality of the entries was excellent, as well they should have been since the Greater Kansas City Area is blessed with some of the best modelers in the hobby. This year's meet also brought to the contest room two very good modelers from out of town, Lind Wickersham from Tulsa, Oklahoma and Earl Mullins from Hastings, Nebraska. Earl's three entries were also judged for merit awards and received over the necessary 87½ points, which completes all his requirements for Structures. Although it is not quite official, Earl Mullins is now the Mid Continent Region's latest Master Model Railroader.

The following took home contest plaques this year.

The Public Relations for the Turkey Creek Meet were handled by Ron Morse and Gary Hankins. Ron did a great job of notifying the magazines of the upcoming meet through emails. Gary was in charge of making copies of the flyers and handing them out to hobby shops and also distributing the flyers at other area meets. Chuck Heying also distributed copies to hobby shops and Gary took care of the copying and folding of the mailers that were sent out. Paul Richardson made copies of flyers for mailing as well as it was determined that not enough were printed. A notice was emailed to the Kansas City Star about the show. Thanks, Gary Hankins
