This is what I'm trying to achieve

Select rice paper

(Blicks, Artist Supply, Colesnows)

Decide on color shade

- select a base stain color
- select pastel chalk colors you want

Need a cheap bristle paint brush

Have a jar of mineral spirits

Tape rice paper to cardboard backing

(can use Walmart box for $1 to $3)

Driftwood 2126

Weathered Oak 270

Classic Gray 271

cheap brush

Base color options

Artist Pastels

-  Blick's ... good selection of colors ... some available in #1, #2, #3, #4 medium hardness
$ cheapest, buy 6 or more $2 deduction

- * Rembrandt ... good selection of colors ...
hardest of the pastels
$$ medium price

- * Sennelier ... best colors – best weathering colors – “no names”
softest of the pastels
$$$$ expensive

- * Schmincke ... wide color selections
soft (very similar to Sennelier)
$$$$ expensive
availability?

- * Windsor & Newton ... ? Colors – available in tints, 1, 2, 3 etc.
soft
not widely stocked
? $

Apply Pastel Chalks

Use at least 3 chalk colors ...

Warm Grays ... Taupes

#2 #3 #4

Sepia #2

Cool Grays

#2 #3 #4

Accents

Avacado green, olive green, (drab greens)

Maroon, dark reds

Blacks, dark grays

If you break your pastels!
SAVE the pieces

Only unwrap $\frac{1}{4}$ " to $\frac{1}{2}$ "

Where you can buy Pastel chalks ... in KC

Michael's

Hobby Lobby

Paint the paper ...

“sprinkle” on 3 colors of pastel chalks
Or brush on, or scrape on with Exacto

With a small amount of mineral spirits on “same brush”

Lightly drag over the wet rice paper
Streaks are okay

Dry Overnight

- Cut into strips about 3/8" wide (32" ... 39")
- Fray some edges
- Glue to wall base
mix up the variation in color

Wood Strips

Use 2x4's, 2x6's or 2x8's

Use single edge razor blade

Cut boards in length, irregular widths okay

Stain with alcohol markers

Apply with white glue

Add nail holes/rust with fine point Sharpie
